A TASTE OF SHEPPARTON & GOULBURN VALLEY'S CULTURAL DIVERSITY

THE HEART OF ALBANIA

Located on High Street, Stanley's Café and Restaurant brings authentic Albanian food to Shepparton, with recipes passed down through generations. This family owned café is a warm and inviting environment, filled with the sounds of music of all genres played on vinyl, it's the perfect place to catch up with friends while enjoying a meal out.

TRADITIONAL DISHES OF THE MIDDLE EAST

Head to Syrian Brothers on High Street to taste the traditional foods from the Middle East. From Lebanese bread, the freshest falafel served with hummus to chicken served over Kabsa rice, come in to try some of their simple dishes that are full of flavour. If you're in need of a sweet treat, try a slice of their traditional Syrian dessert, Kunafa, perfect with a cup of their Syrian coffee.

TRY DIVERSE CUISINES

CLASSIC ITALIAN FOOD & WINE

Bicaro's Ristorante, Bar & Forno is a classic, Italian staple in Shepparton. Tucked away in North Street, a short walk east from Shepparton's CBD, this is the place to spend your evening with family and friends, enjoying a hearty Italian pasta or a woodfire pizza paired with a selection of wines from the King Valley and Heathcote regions at cellar door prices.

HOT TIP:

If you're looking for a local drop of wine, Bicaro's is a stockist for Seraphim Wines and Scarpari Brothers, wines made in the Goulburn Valley.

FILIPINO FOOD TRUCK

Fast becoming one of the most popular food trucks in Shepparton is Nanna Marce. The Marce family has been serving Filipino food to the people of Shepparton and Goulburn Valley since 2019, you'll usually find their green caravan parked at Victoria Park Lake on a Saturday evening when they're not busy working at events and private functions.

HINT:

Check out Nanna Marce's social media pages to find out where they'll be parked, and make sure to try the local favourite, Fried Chicken and Waffle.

FLAVOURS OF THE WORLD

A TASTE OF VIETNAM

One of the newer restaurants that Shepparton has to offer, but already immensely popular with locals, Pho Viet offers an authentic taste of Vietnamese flavours and culture. From Pho and noodles to bao buns and banh mi, their menu is full of dishes that will keep you coming back.

AUTHENTIC THAI FLAVOURS

The Last Straw is a Shepparton staple when it comes to Thai cuisine. Located on Keppel Street, they are a bit off the beaten track, but it's worth the detour to get a taste of this local favourite. Make sure to get there during the week, because they're closed on weekends.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT:

While you're at The Last Straw, enjoying a delicious curry or some yummy noodles, make sure to have a coffee, they roast their beans on site.

CELEBRATE CULTURES

'Converge on the Goulburn' is an annual two day festival to celebrate the diverse cultures in Shepparton and Goulburn Valley and open the Shepparton Festival. Come and move to the music, connect with the community and indulge in the authentic cuisines made from the heart with recipes passed down through generations and step into our vibrant cultural marketplace.

MUST TRY JAPANESE DISHES

Can you never decide what to order? If this is you, Okami Japanese Restaurant is the place to go. They offer an all-you-can-eat menu so you can try over 30 dishes, all at a fixed price, which is a good thing, because these authentic Japanese dishes will leave you wanting more. Head to Fryers Street to try something new.

INDIAN FOOD FOR THE SOUL

Experience the flavours of India at Zaika Indian Restaurant, located on Fryers Street, the heart of Shepparton's food precinct. With so many delicious options on the menu, like traditional curries, tandoori dishes, fluffy naan and flaky roti, it will be hard to choose.
